

Media Release (2022 event)

The 7th Annual U.S. Basketball Games welcomes exciting, talented players to Georgia {boys & girls} on August 4 - 7, 2022

Alpharetta, GA -The 7th Annual U.S. Basketball Games will end the youth basketball travel season with some of the best players representing their respective state all under one roof (Lakepoint Sports Complex). The event will feature several nationally ranked players in the country as well as some of the best teams on the travel basketball circuit from Alabama, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Louisiana, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, Mississippi, Nebraska, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Texas, Virginia, and West Virginia with over 3,000 players providing fans with rim-rattling, back board shattering excitement.

Former U.S. Basketball Game stand outs include; Kira Lewis Jr (University of Alabama 2020 NBA Draft Selection by New Orleans Pelicans), Scottie Barnes (Florida State, 2021 NBA Draft Selection by the Toronto Raptors), Brandon Boston (University of Kentucky, 2021 NBA Draft Selection by the Los Angeles Clippers), Robert Dillingham (North Carolina State), Patrick Wessler (Virginia Tech), Morez Johnson (Illinois), Adam Flagler (Baylor), Alex O' Connell (Duke/Creighton), Isaiah Collier (TBD), Brady O' Connell (Old Dominion), Josh Taylor (UGA), K.D. Johnson (Auburn), Dwon Odom (Xavier), Coleman Boyd (Ga. Tech), Kamar Robinson (Mercer), Kowacie Reeves Jr (University of Florida), Chance Moore (Arkansas), Bruce Thornton (Ohio State), Matthew Cleveland (Florida State) and nationally ranked players such as Aden Holloway, Devon Ree, Jaylen Curry, London Johnson, RJ Walker, Jamarion Davis Fleming, Rob Walls, Austin Conor, Trinity Bell, Taye Field, Josh Hubbard, Dwight Canady Jr., and many others.

Over 775 travel basketball programs will be represented in our event and will include a nonstop hoops action from Thursday afternoon through Sunday evening. Also, each court will be live streamed by PlaySight which will offer Video on Demand for parents, players, coaches and more during the event.

“We are very excited to host some of the country’s best teams and players in our 7th Annual U.S. Basketball Games,” said Kim Coleman, Halftime Sports President. “We are thrilled to be a part of a great community and “hot bed” for basketball. The competition will be action packed, the facilities are beautiful, and the atmosphere will be electric.”