

Media Release (2026 event)

The 11th Annual U.S. Basketball Games welcomes exciting, talented players to Georgia {boys & girls} July 31 - August 2, 2026

Alpharetta, GA -The 11th Annual U.S. Basketball Games will end the youth basketball travel season with some of the best players representing their respective state all under one roof (Lakepoint Champions Sports Complex). The event will feature several nationally ranked players (boys and girls 3rd-HS) in the country as well as some of the best teams on the travel basketball circuit from Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Washington, and West Virginia with over 3,000 players providing fans with rim-rattling, back board shattering excitement.

Former U.S. Basketball Game stand outs include; Morez Johnson (Michigan, NBA Dallas Mavericks), Bruce Thornton (Ohio State, NBA Houston Rockets), Adam Flagler (Baylor, Oklahoma City Thunder), Kira Lewis Jr (University of Alabama 2020 NBA New Orleans Pelicans), Scottie Barnes (Florida State, NBA Toronto Raptors), Brandon Boston (University of Kentucky, New Orleans Pelicans), Robert Dillingham (Kentucky, NBA Chicago Bulls), Aden Holloway (Alabama), Gus Yaldin (Wisconsin), Patrick Wessler (Virginia Tech), Alex O'Connell (Duke/Creighton, Sacramento Kings), Isaiah Collier (USC, NBA Utah Jazz), Brady O'Connell (Old Dominion), Josh Taylor (UGA), K.D. Johnson (Auburn), Dwon Odom (Xavier), Coleman Boyd (Ga. Tech), Kamar Robinson (Mercer), Kowacie Reeves Jr (Georgia Tech), Matthew Cleveland (Miami, CEBL), Josh Hubbard (Miss State), and nationally ranked players such as Jessica Fields, Kate Harpring, Devon Ree, Jaylen Curry, London Johnson, RJ Walker, Jamarion Davis Fleming, Rob Walls, Austin Conor, Trinity Bell, Taye Field, Dwight Canady Jr., and many others.

Over 775 travel basketball programs will be represented in our event and will include a nonstop hoops action from Thursday afternoon through Sunday evening. Also, each court will be live streamed by PlaySight which will offer Video on Demand for parents, players, coaches and more during the event.

The competition will be action packed, the facilities are beautiful, and the atmosphere will be electric.